

2012 BAPEN MEETING

17-20 JUNE 2012 | ACC, Liverpool

in association with BSG, AUGIS & BASL combined as the Digestive Disorders Federation (DDF) Conference

Registration Now Open
Early bird rates close 22 March 2012

Join BAPEN in the vibrant city of Liverpool, June 2012 for BAPEN's annual meeting at the DDF

Four societies and associations specialising in digestive diseases and nutrition, including BAPEN, the British Society of Gastroenterology (BSG), Association of Upper GI Surgeons (AUGIS) and the British Association for the Study of the Liver (BASL), are joining together in a combined conference. Don't miss out on this first-ever UK collaborative meeting.

4 days of high-impact symposia, state of the art lectures and more than one thousand abstracts
BAPEN symposia plus combined symposia explore:

- Effective Feeding of Patients with Chronic Conditions
- Enteral and Parenteral Nutrition – Safe care
- Dietary Management of GI Disorders
- Ethical Dilemmas in Clinical Nutrition: Consent, End of Life, Dementia
- Nutritional Care in the Community
- Dietary Fibre – The good, the bad and the ugly
- Intestinal Failure, Immuno-nutrition and Pseudo-obstruction.

Contact Details:

Register your interest to attend BAPEN@DDF2012 and enter a prize draw to win an iPad2! Not a member of BAPEN? Join BAPEN at www.bapen.org.uk to qualify for excellent value-for-money delegate rates at this key event.

Visit www.bapen.org.uk/ce\_annual\_conf\_2012.html to view savings on registration fees for the DDF meeting 17-20 June!

Significant discounts
on registration fees
for BAPEN members