

Meetings 2011

70th Anniversary Year

The Nutrition Society was founded in 1941, after a call from several individuals interested in research on nutrition. The first meeting was held at the Royal Institution in London on 23 July 1941, and 2011 will mark the anniversary of 70 successful years for the Society. For a full history of the Nutrition Society, visit the 'About Us' section of the website (www.nutrition-society.org).
