

Pan-London Regional BAPEN Meeting 2012
 Tuesday 15th May 2012
 Room 1.60 Franklin Wilkins Building
 King's College London, Waterloo Campus
 £18 BAPEN Members, £36 Non-BAPEN Members

1.30 – 2.30pm	Registration, Lunch & Refreshments Trade Exhibition
Nutrition & IBD Chairs: Andrew Rochford (Barts Health) & Sheena Visram (UCLH)
2.35 – 3.05pm	LOFFLEX & FODMAP diets in IBD: More fact than fad? Katie Keetarut - Senior IBD dietitian, UCLH
3.05 – 3.20pm	The initial in-patient management of short bowel patients Tom Shepherd - SpR Gastroenterology, Royal Free Hospital
3.20 – 3.50pm	Expert Panel Debate: Abnormal LFTs and parenteral nutrition Chair: David Gertner Panel: Simon Gabe & Alison Culkin (St Mark's), Michael Glynn (Barts Health), Sarah Zeraschi (BTUH)
3.50 – 4pm	BAPEN Update AGM including annual report & election of committee - Regional BAPEN Committee
4 - 4.30pm	Refreshments & Trade Exhibition
Local & Community Matters Chairs: Rick Wilson (KCH) & Jeremy Nightingale (St Mark's)
4.30 – 4.45pm	Basildon's nurses are on a 'Nutrition Mission': Placing nutrition at the centre of patient care Andrea Cartwright – Clinical Nurse Specialist, BTUH
4.45 – 5pm	HPN Homecare Commissioning: The dawn of a new era? Mia Small, Nurse Consultant & Jackie Eastwood, Senior Pharmacist - St Mark's
5 – 5.15pm	'Do in' the Lambeth walk': An Integrated Care Pathway approach in Lambeth and Southwark Liz Weekes - Consultant dietitian and research lead, Guys & St Thomas'
5.15 – 5.50pm	Keynote presentation Paediatric small bowel transplantation: Early experiences of at King's Chair: Alastair Forbes Dietetic team at KCH supported by Prof Anil Dhawan & Dr Jonathan Hind
Summary & Close Andrew Rochford

