NOW IN IT'S 15TH YEAR

BOOK YOUR DELEGATE PLACE TODAY!

An educational conference packed with information, new initiatives, ideas and networking opportunities - designed to motivate and give you ideas of ways to improve your catering provision

Who Cares Wins!

Brought to you by the National Association of Care Catering, the industry's leading association representing care caterers throughout the UK. This two-day conference is packed with high profile speakers presenting and debating the burning issues relating to catering within the care sector.

DURING THE CONFERENCE YOU WILL LEARN:

- The Parliamentary perspective on care and nutrition for the elderly – paying attention to three specific concerns – training, nutritional screening and co-ordination, and outlining potential solutions, the progress to date and plans for the future.
- The development of care services in social care
- Nutritional Guidelines update - an update on the nutritional guidelines for care homes that are being developed with a number of key government organisations, agencies and associations.
- Food regulations training seminar - an interactive workshop that will cover all the latest food regulations including food safety training requirements and Hazard Analysis Critical Control Points (HACCP).
- Food in later life – the findings on the latest research into 'food in later life' and 'grey power'
- The latest changes – changes to catering qualifications, and a round-up of all the training packages on offer.
- Innovation in the care of older people – the latest technological advancements available to those running care homes and CSCI's recommendations for technology in the future.
- Caring about food – caring about people – exploration of the advantages of including organic produce in care home menus and the environmental and welfare issues of this coupled with the affordability of doing so within a tight budgetary constraint.
- Improving preventative care – Easy to follow steps to keep the elderly well – good hydration, healthy diet, regular exercise to name but a few.
- Motivation tips from a champion athlete - Colin Jackson, one of Britain's sporting icons will speak of the lessons he has learnt throughout his career and how he managed the emotional highs and lows to visualise and focus on the end result, no matter what!

SOME OF THE HIGH PROFILE SPEAKERS PRESENTING AT THE CONFERENCE

Colin Jackson CBE

Colin is the ultimate Icon of British sport. Colin's motivational talk draws from his long and successful career which epitomise the emotional ups and downs of the ultimate champion athlete. He guides you through the lows of his defeat at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics and onto the highs of the World Championships that followed. He speaks of the lessons he learnt and how he turned his defeat into renewed motivation and focus.

The Baroness Greengross OBE

Before entering the House of Lords, Baroness Greengross was Director General of Age Concern for 13 years. She is currently Chief Executive of the International Longevity Centre and co-chairs the Alliance for Health and the Future. Her experience of issues relating to healthy ageing is extensive and she will share with you her insight into the development of care services in social care.

Paul Burstow, MP

Paul Burstow has been the Liberal Democrat MP for Sutton and Cheam since 1997. Named as

London's hardest working MP by the Evening Standard and described recently by the Gaurdian as "One of the most knowledgeable and effective politicians on older people's issues, the Lib Dem spokesman at times seems the only parliamentarian taking a real interest in elderly care, and has almost single handedly kept older people's issues on the political agenda."

Great networking opportunities

Network with colleagues and enjoy the informal pre-conference evening dinner and cabaret. Celebrate with industry peers at the Black Tie Gala Awards Dinner with a superb four course dinner and awards ceremony. Plus there's all the breakfasts, lunches and coffee breaks where you'll be able to exchange ideas, put names to faces and catch up with old friends.

Source new products and services

The 'Catercare exhibition' runs alongside the conference – over 40 manufacturers and service providers will be demonstrating the very latest food, drink, technology and equipment products ideal for use in your catering establishments.
