

COVID-19 Pyrexia protocol for HPN patients if community COVID testing available

Paediatric patients: if there are any concerns regarding possibility of CVC infection at initial triage then local guidelines and practices should be followed. Also, children should not stop PN as they would be unable to maintain their glucose and electrolytes so the risks of stopping PN might outweigh benefit.