BAPEN Medical Teaching Day in conjunction with ESPEN Lifelong Learning Programme
Harrogate International Conference Centre
Monday 28th November 2011

Demystifying Parenteral Nutrition
ESPEN LLL Topic 9: Approach to Parenteral Nutrition

9:30-10:00  Registration and coffee

Chairs: Professor Alastair Forbes, Dr Nicola Simmonds
10:00-10:15  Introduction and clinical vignettes
- Difficult requirements  Dr Tyara Banerjee, Specialist Registrar Gastroenterology, Luton & Dunstable Hospital
- When things go wrong  Mr Joseph Crozier, Specialist Registrar Surgery, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
10:15-10:30  Indications for Parenteral Nutrition
  Dr Ruth McKee, Consultant Surgeon, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
10:30-10:55  Requirements – what are you going to give?
  Dr Elizabeth Weekes, Department of Nutrition & Dietetics, Guy’s & St. Thomas’ NHS Foundation Trust, London.
10:55-11:20  What line, where and how.
  Dr Wilson Thomas, Consultant Anaesthetist, Dudley Group of Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
11:20-11:50  Coffee
11:50-12:20  Standard vs bespoke bags
  Rebecca White, Pharmacy Team Manager, Surgery and Nutrition, Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust
12:20 – 12:50  Fancy ingredients
  Dr Alison Avenell, Clinical Senior Lecturer, University of Aberdeen
12:50 – 13:20  Indications and goals for Parenteral Nutrition
  - Update on case presentations
  - Panel discussion and questions
13:20-14:05  Lunch

Chair: Dr Ruth McKee
14:05-14:35  Pitfalls of monitoring
  Dr Michael Colley, Consultant Biochemist, Great Western Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14:35-15:15  When things go wrong
  Dr Simon Lal, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Hope Hospital, Salford
15:15-15:45  Tea
15:45-16:15  Monitoring and complications of Parenteral Nutrition
  - Update on case presentations
  - Panel discussion and questions
16:15-16:45  What does it cost?
  Dr Sheldon Cooper, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Dudley Group of Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
16:45-17:15  Quiz (for those wishing to gain 3 credits in the ESPEN LLL programme)
17:15  Feedback & close of meeting

Kindly sponsored by:

!Abbott Nutrition
!Fresenius Kabi
!Baxter