Announcing the "Powell-Tuck Prize" to be awarded by BAPEN Medical

Calling all training grade doctors/surgeons to submit quality abstracts reporting research/clinical aspects of nutrition, for both poster and oral presentation at the Digestive Diseases Federation conference in June (Liverpool). Deadline for submission for consideration is 20th January 2012 via instructions on the DDF website:

http://www.ddf2012.org.uk

The presentation of the Powell-Tuck prize, named after the founder of BAPEN Medical: Professor Jeremy Powell-Tuck, includes £100 prize fund and free attendance at the annual BAPEN conference (conference fees only). This year there will also be runner-up prizes for free attendance at the BAPEN Medical teaching day (conference fees only), the day prior to the main BAPEN meeting.
